Roll Call:

What is your dream for this holiday season, or the upcoming new year?

Sew Days
Continuing in December
Every Wednesday, beginning at 9:30 a.m. we can get together and sew. You can bring your own project or sew on projects for Homemakers; twin size quilts, potholders, etc.) If you have an unfinished project you need help with this would be a great opportunity to get help from others!

This is open to ALL Homemakers and bring a friend!.

UPCOMING EVENTS

The office will be closed for Christmas Break December 25th through January 1st.

Hancock County Homemakers are collecting coffee cups for the Oaks Personal Care Facility residents. New or used cups can be taken to the Extension Office by the first week in December.
